Customer Reviews

This is an amazing collection of poems, providing the reader with a unique and intimate view into the life of a young disabled man. I think the book is so powerful because the writing style really allows you to genuinely experience the author's inner thoughts, emotions, and frustrations, a unique perspective that is usually not talked about. I would definitely recommend this book to everyone!

This poetry is both beautiful and moving. Reading this poetry offers insights into the perspective of a disabled man moving through the world in a thoughtful, insightful way.
