My ex-husband works for the Double Musky Inn. This book brings back many fond memories. The writings are great as well as the recipes. Since my ex is one of the chefs there, I know first hand that these are the ACTUAL recipes that they use right there in the restaurant. Its a must have souvenir of Alaska. Way to go Bob and Deana.

I've been to Anchorage twice and each time to the Double Musky Inn. These recipes are exactly spot on. The french pepper steak and double musky pie come out perfect.

I LOVE TO COOK . I own more than 100 cookbooks but none like this one. I received mine as a gift and it turned into my favorite very quickly. Beside "How to make rue's and terrific sauces it was an interesting read. I bought it as a gift for graduation for my niece who was a culinary student and she agrees it is a great read.

I had copies of the recipes for years. So nice to have them in a really nice cookbook. I used to live in Girdwood. Hopefully I can go there to eat again someday. Best gumbo I've ever eaten including in New Orleans.

I lived in Alaska over 35 years and always ate at the Double Musky located in Girdwood, Alaska. There food is WONDERFUL. I was so happy to see them product a cookbook of their great meals. This cookbook is a great addition to a cookbook collector or for anyone that just loves great food. A+++ Plus it makes me remember how much I miss living in Alaska. :)

Bob & Deanna have done a marvelous job with this book. The stories, photo's and receipes are wonderful. We have been fortunate enough to visit The Double Musky Inn for many years and it is by far the best in the state. If you are unable to visit The Inn, this is the next best thing!!

there are so many good things about this book, not sure where to start...i love everything in it and everything about the musky! we are lucky to have the double musky in alaska!

We've been to the Musky many times over the years, and the food doesn't disappoint. When the DM cookbook came out, my friends and I decided to tackle it by sharing a few recipes over a potluck dinner. What a fun and a delicious evening we had! The coconut salmon was exotic, easy, and a crowd pleaser. The shrimp-stuffed avocado was gorgeous and decadent, but it can also be served unstuffed, on some interesting greens, with shrimp and avocado arranged over the top for lighter fare. We followed this by the wonderful jalapeno cheese rolls, steamy and fragrant from the oven. Next was the exquisite French pepper steak, with its unusual preparation that left guests wondering as to the secret ingredient. Finally, for us chocolate lovers, the Double Musky pie could not be missed. The recipes really lived up to the restaurant and were loads of fun to prepare.
