Customer Reviews

I have worked hard to keep my body slim and trim. My body does not look my age at all. However, my face looked about 15 years older because I lost about 20 lbs. and my face looked saggy. I was quite dismayed with the appearance of my face, as I looked like I had suddenly aged when I lost the weight. I never liked the idea of plastic surgery...or any type of surgery for that matter, but because my jowls were saggy and I had marionette lines, I was feeling tempted!! I stumbled across Suzanne Summer's micro-current device while shopping for collagen stimulating cream and was thrilled to see that there was something out there that could help! I did a lot of research and saw that this device was not the answer. As I read skin care forums, I read posts about facial exercises. Wow! Could there be something all natural out there that could really work? So, I researched extensively about facial exercises and watched many youtube videos by the various facial exercise gurus. I saw Eva and was shocked that she looked so young in her 80s!! So, I decided to try Eva's book, as it was a minimal expense. When I received the book, I was surprised that it was a small size. The drawings looked out-dated and it looked like it would be complicated to try to decipher what was being said, since I do not like to read directions. I am a visual person so I do much better with videos than with written instructions. So I did not bother with the book for about a week. One night, I thought that I would try reading it to see if I could follow it. I found that the instructions were pretty clear. I thought, "What do I have to lose? I will give it a few weeks." After a few of weeks, I could see a difference! Wow!! This really works!! That encouraged me to continue!
