Customer Reviews

I immediately went out and purchased this book after attending a party in which the hostess presented a beautiful and tasty appetizer buffet using eight different recipes from Season's Greetings. The recipes are all eye appealing, delicious and in most cases easy to make. Recipes also include make-ahead tips. I highly recommend it for the beginner as well as the seasoned hostess.

I bought this book on sale due to the food pictures in thebook. A person who love cooking usually can tell if the author is good by looking at the pictures of the final product. What attracted me to get this book was her recipe for pick up drumsticks. That is the most simple recipe I had seen for baking up drumsticks that looked like they were fried. Other ideas in the book are also great and time saving. Our church always having special holiday dinner or special dinner gets together for revival meeting nights, etc. It is so hard to find people who are willing to cook for such large audience. This is a life saver for ladies who are in charge of the food for those special occasion, even for a Chinese church. I had already shared some of the recipes with friends at church and they just can't wait to try them out (This also include busy guys who help their wives out with cooking). I highly recommend you to get a copy of this book. END

I've had this book (first edition) since 1989; I used many of the recipes herein for a holiday buffet (I was younger & entertaining at that time). Her leftover turkey recipes are really interesting & tasty. Will be using some of them this year! I highly recommend any cookbook by Marlene Sorosky!

I have owned this Holiday cookbook for at least 10 years and it's fantastic. I am now buying a copy for my parents' cause they are hooked on a couple of recipes and want their own copy.
